

Organizational Functions

Executive Director

Robert Quinn, Executive Director

The Executive Director is the PSC's chief operations officer. The Executive Director is responsible for the overall administrative functions and the policy direction of the Staff. The Executive Director also serves as the primary liaison between the Commissioners and the Staff. The Executive Director also oversees the Public Information and Education Department and the PSC's Legislative Coordinator. The Public Information and Education Department develops and distributes press and consumer information on current PSC activities, develops educational pieces for distribution, maintains the PSC

Reports, and deals with other media requests. The Legislative Coordinator is the PSC's primary liaison with the Missouri General Assembly and also assists with education and consumer relations activities.

Adjudication Division

Dale Hardy Roberts, Secretary/Chief Regulatory Law Judge

The Adjudication Division is the PSC's quasi-judicial Division. A staff of nine Administrative Law Judges (sometimes called regulatory law judges) handle the cases from the day the case is filed until the day it is finally resolved. New cases go to the Chief Judge who assigns them to himself or to one of the other eight judges. Thereafter, the assigned Judge presides over the hearings, rules on objections and motions, and drafts all orders, as directed by the Commission, for that particular case. The Adjudication Division's Data Center performs the functions of a Clerk of the court in that the Data Center receives all incoming pleadings and issues all Commission orders. In addition, the Data Center stores and preserves the official case files, tariffs and other official documents of the Commission.

Administration Division

Donna M. Prenger, Director

The Administration Division is responsible for managing the fiscal, personnel, and information resources of the agency. This Division oversees budget development, strategic planning, internal accounting, procurement, staff services, consumer services, personnel, payroll, information services and training functions for the agency. Consumer Services, with offices in Jefferson City and St. Louis, is the clearinghouse for all inquiries and complaints received by the PSC.

General Counsel

Dana K. Joyce, General Counsel

The Office of the General Counsel represents the Staff and Commission in all matters relating to Missouri utility regulation. Its duties consist of traditional legal work and include providing advice, upon request, to the Commission and each Commissioner. The Office also represents the Commission in actions involving questions under the PSC or other laws, the defense of Commission orders or decisions and, as directed or authorized by the Commission, the intervention in related proceedings and the prosecution of actions on behalf of the state as authorized by law.

Utility Operations Division

Wess Henderson, Director

The Utility Operations Division is comprised of four departments: Telecommunications, Energy, Water and Sewer, and Manufactured Housing. It supports the Commission in meeting its statutory responsibilities by providing technical expertise in energy safety; utility rates, tariffs, rules and regulations; economic analysis; engineering oversight and investigations; and construction inspections. The Utility Operations Division also has oversight of the Manufactured Housing Department's regulation of manufactured home dealers operating in Missouri. The division accomplishes its mission by making recommendations to the Commission in the form of expert testimony and formal recommendations.

Because of its diverse responsibilities, the Utility Operations Division retains a professional staff with expertise in accounting, economics, finance and engineering.

Utility Services Division

Robert Schallenberg, Director

The Utility Services Division consists of five departments and supports the Commission by providing technical expertise in utility finance, accounting and auditing, natural gas procurement, depreciation analysis and management services. Staff members assigned to the Division accomplish their mission by performing audits and/or reviews of the books and records of the utilities. Staff draws conclusions from these findings and makes recommendations to the Commission in the form of expert testimony and formal recommendations. The Division is also responsible for investigating and responding to consumer complaints and making recommendations to the Commission regarding their resolution.
